Magnetic key

The magnetic key with a high-quality neodyme magnet offers many functions. For the MultiControl, it enables switching the bus protocol or the use of the Teach-In method. For the ConveyorControl, it enables addressing or, for example, performing a self-test.

Article number: S-64100210

ConveyorControl termination box

The small termination box serves as terminating resistor for the communication cable of the ConveyorControl system. The termination box can easily contact the cable using piercing technology.

Article number: S-1103892

Technical data

· Temperature range: −30 to +40 °C

Dimensions